

8th Szeged Workshop on Educational Evaluation April 25-26 2016

Main Theme: Early Childhood Education and Assessment

Call for Papers and Participation

Program Chairs:

Benő Csapó and Jarkko Hautamäki

The workshop is organized by the Institute of Education, University of Szeged. It will take place after the 14th Conference on Educational Assessment.

The primary aims of the workshop

- bring together interesting research from all around the world;
- offer an opportunity to discuss key issues in depth;
- strengthen cooperation between individuals and institutions.

The main themes of the workshop

- assessment in kindergarten and primary school;
- current issues in technology-based assessment, research agenda of the participating teams;
- areas of cooperation.

Forms of work

- presentations reviewing large-scale projects in progress;
- short presentations on individual projects;
- question and answer sessions, personal consultations & encounters during the coffee breaks

Organizers and host institutions

- Institute of Education, University of Szeged,
- MTA-SZTE Research Group on the Development of Competencies,
- Center for Research on Learning and Instruction, University of Szeged,
- Graduate School of Educational Sciences, University of Szeged,
- Szeged Branch of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

Financing the workshop

Registration is required, but there is no fee. The University of Szeged provides the venue and does the organizational work.

Interested researchers should contact the program chairs

Benő Csapó (University of Szeged) <csapo@edpsy.u-szeged.hu>, or Jarkko Hautamäki (University of Helsinki) <jarkko.hautamaki@helsinki.fi>.

Venue: Szeged Branch of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences: 7, Somogyi Street, Szeged.

Secretary, registration, information: Alisa Tóth <tothalisa@edu.u-szeged.hu>

WEB: <http://www.edu.u-szeged.hu/swee/>

For accommodation see: http://www.edu.u-szeged.hu/pek2016/?page_id=172&lang=en